

Inter-University PhD in Educational Studies Portfolio Examination Assessment Report

The members of the doctoral student's Dissertation Supervisory Committee, as well as the External Examiner, agree that (doctoral student's name) _____ Student # _____

The Portfolio received the following assessment¹ on this date²: _____:

- Pass From this point on, the student becomes a Doctoral Candidate and works toward completion, and a public oral defence of the Dissertation.
- Fail Normally, a failed portfolio will result in termination from the doctoral program, even if the other course work (GEDU 9001-9005/EDUC 8013-8053) is successfully completed. Doctoral students can petition for a re-submission.

Note: Although the External Examiner will not be involved in the development of the portfolio, he or she will be expected to have read it carefully, including the 4,000 word narrative, and be prepared for the oral presentation (examination), attending in person or via video or teleconference.

¹In a private session immediately following the presentation and question period, the Supervisory Committee and the External Examiner will decide whether the Portfolio warrants a pass or fail grade. Doctoral students will be informed about the outcome of the Portfolio examination immediately following the Committee decision, on the same day. The student now becomes Doctoral Candidate.

²Normally by July 1st, at the end of year one or year two, the doctoral student will have completed the portfolio. In consultation with each of the students, the Supervisory Committee and the External Examiner, the IDAC will confirm a presentation date for the Portfolio Examination.
